LCI welcomes two new board members.

Sara Harrington

Sara is an attorney with the Law Office of Sara Harrington. She earned her bachelor's degree from Wake Forest University in 1994 and law degree from Campbell University in 2002. In addition to her experience in bankruptcy law, Sara had a career in marketing and public relations in the Triangle area prior to entering law school.

Sara is a member of the National Association of Bankruptcy Attorneys, Sanford Business and Professional Women and the Sanford Area Chamber of Commerce, where she also serves as a Chamber Ambassador. She volunteers with Sanford Jobseekers and the local Legal Aid Advisory Board. She has been part of the Mayor's Taskforce on Homelessness, on the Board of Sustainable Sandhills, on the outreach committee of Communities in Schools, and board member of Family Promise of Lee County.

Jim Brogan

Jim Brogan will be LCI's finance chair.

Jim is an Industrial Engineer at Coty, and his job involves labor estimation and labor costing.

Jim also serves as the Clerk for his church, as well as a Financial Auditor for other units of his church. Jim is married with 5 children.

Besides his church, Jim is active in the Boy Scouts of America with his sons.

Jim looks forward to serving the citizens of Lee County by helping LCI be the best organization it can be.
